MRS. ESTES, PIONEER SONOMA RESIDENT, IS CALLED BY DEATH

Resident of Sonoma Since 1854 Passed
Away Tuesday Surrounded by Nine
Children and Two Brothers.

Mary Frances Estes, widow of the late George Estes, and a resident of Sonoma Valley since 1854, passed away Tuesday at the family home on Broadway after an illness of some months. Her death takes from this locality one of the oldest settlers and a mother beloved by a large family and wide circle of friends.

Mrs. Estes was born in Plymouth, Mass., in 1850. When 18 months old, she crossed the plains with her parents who were among the first settlers in California. The pioneer family settled in Sonoma when deceased was four years of age. Her parents owned a ranch near Vineburg, later moving into town and when Mary Frances was 15 years of age, she was married by Father Dyer in the neighboring parish of Napa to George W. Estes, also of hardy pioneer stock, a young man who arrived in San Francisco during the stirring days of the Vigilantes.

Of this sturdy, happy union were born 11 children, nine of whom survive the parents. The children were all born and raised here in Sonoma and for 45 years the family home was on Broadway, where the father died, and daughter and grandchildren continue to reside.

Despite her devotion to her large family, Mrs. Estes always found time to be a good friend and neighbors to those around her. When sickness or trouble overtook anyone of her acquaintance, she was the first to be sent for, the first one to go to those in distress. Many a long vigil she kept at the sick bed and many a little stranger she welcomed into the world. With a cheery smile and tender, soothing words, Mrs. Estes was the friend indeed to those in need.

Nine of her 11 children were raised by this good mother to young manhood and womanhood, two sons passing away several years ago and also the husband and father.

Mrs. Estes, during recent years, had divided her time between Sonoma and Port Costa and also visited much with her married children and the grandchildren in whom she took great joy. Her family were always devoted to her and there was never a time when she was separated from her loved ones. As the Angel of Death came to claim her, the devoted children and two brothers kept vigil and tenderly watched the flickering out of the gentle spirit, destined to realms of eternal peace.

On Thursday all that was mortal of the pioneer mother was laid to rest in Mountain Cemetery beside those gone before. A mass for the repose of her soul was solemnized by Rev. J. F. Byrne of St. Francis church, prior to the services at the home. The funeral was largely attended and there were many exquisite floral offerings.

The surviving relatives are William and Daniel Estes of Monterey county, Fred J. Estes of Oakland, Edward and Ezra Estes of Port Costa, Ella R. Estes of San Francisco, Mrs. S. S. Simon of Monterey, Mrs. J. S. Brereton of Oakland, Mrs. Paul Rehn of Sonoma, five grandchildren and four great grandchildren. James and Daniel Hennessey of Modesto and Madera are the surviving brothers.

BLEW HAND OFF WITH SHOT GUN

Young John Guilfoyle Pulls Loaded
Weapon From Machine With Awful Results.

John Guilfoyle, thirteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Guilfoyle of Schellville, met with a sad accident New Year's day which cost him the loss of his right hand. When returning from a hunting trip, the boy attempted to pull a shot gun out of the automobile and the hammer caught on the side of the car and discharged the gun. The muzzle was in line with the right hand of the boy and he received the full charge in his right hand which was shot to shreds. The accident happened in front of the Guilfoyle home and the injured lad was at once rushed to town for surgical attention. Dr. Thomson had him taken to Crane's sanitarium where he amputated between wrist and elbow. Not a bone was left, so completely did the gun-shot wound shatter the hand.

The lad is doing as well as can be expected and nurse and doctor declare he has shown great fortitude and is a wonderfully brave young patient.

New Year's Party at Fox Home

One of the delightful home celebrations of New Year's in the Sonoma Valley was at the John Fox ranch, where Mr. and Mrs. Fox and Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Meinhardt jointly entertained at an elaborate dinner party. In return for an elaborate Christmas dinner, prepared by Mrs. Fox, it was agreed that Mr. Meinhardt who is an experienced and gifted chef, should cook the New Year's dinner. It was a feast de luxe, the table being beautifully decorated in assorted carnations and asparagus fern, the service being a credit to Mr. Meinhardt and his young assistants, Roy Wirtz and Eddie Meinhardt.

The menu was a triumph in the culinary art and included oyster cocktail, cream of asparagus soup, fresh lobster salad decorated with coral claws and garnished with capers and mayonnaise, hot asparagus with Béchamel sauce, roast beef, vegetables, home made ice cream and fruit cake. Camembert cheese and coffee.

After Chef Meinhardt came in from the kitchen and had been congratulated by the company, he changed his white cap and regimentals for dress clothes and proved further talent by treating the company to some excellent music. Directing an orchestra consisting of the Misses Fox, his son, and Roy Wirtz, Professor Meinhardt rendered some excellent music, both classic and popular. The orchestra is composed of Mr. Meinhardt, cornet; Misses Fox, piano and violin; Roy Wirtz, clarinet and Edward Meinhardt, drums.

There was dancing to this excellent music, vocal solos by Mrs. Emparan, duets by the Misses Fox, numbers by Mrs. Meinhardt in true Viennese style, and others of the company present. The big living room was the scene of jollity and entertainment until a late hour, the New Year being as heartily welcomed at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Fox as any place in California.

Host, hostess, their three charming daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Meinhardt were the recipients of decided compliments on the success of the party.

Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Specht, Mrs. Emparan, R. R. Emparan, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy and Mr. N. Wirtz.

Christened New Concrete Bridge With Wine

There is a new concrete bridge on the county road between here and Santa Rosa that had the distinction of being christened with wine the other day—real wine. The bridge is near Glen Ellen, in the heart of the Valley of the Moon, with vineyards all about it. The famous Jack London ranch towers above it. A pioneer roadside inn, where pioneers were wont to regale themselves with the cup that cheers once stood hard by. The environment was conducive of the thought that the new bridge over the meandering creek on the new Schellville-Santa Rosa highway should be christened with wine.

But how, in this day of outlawed beverages, could such a ceremony be possible?

Fate weaves strange tricks. On New Year's day passersby could have sworn that the air was fragrant with Sonoma Valley wine as they neared the above mentioned bridge. Sure enough, the ceremony was in progress. Judge Leopold Justi and Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan were factotums and aided by one Pete Anderson, four bottles of wine were broken on the new bridge, the libation to Volstead decorating the concrete almost as gracefully as it once did the mahogany. "How come?" asked the passersby, and then the secret was out.

The wine, with $35 accompanying it, was donated by H. G. Buck of the Mervyn Hotel to the prohibition cause. Judge Justi assessed a fine of 35 bucks to Buck, "he of the heart of the Valley of the Moon," and Buck paid. The four bottles of wine were seized at the Mervyn in the recent raid by Deputy Sheriff Ryan and had to be destroyed. Ryan and Justi conceived the idea of breaking the wine on the bridge, which will henceforth be known as "The Bridge of Sighs," so some folks say.

AUTOS COLLIDE ON

NEW YEAR'S DAY

On New Year's day about noon, as Supervisor Fred Lowell and wife were coming through town in their sedan, they collided at the intersection of Napa and First Street West with Mrs. C. C. Cowgill, in her Franklin. The Lowells were driving on Napa street and Mrs. Cowgill, driving her car, was turning from First Street West into Napa street when the collision occurred.

Both cars were damaged by the collision but no one was hurt. Lowell and Mrs. Cowgill are covered by insurance and an adjuster was in town Wednesday checking up on the accident.

Some of those recommended for memberships are D. B. Walls, Petaluma, vice president of Poultry Producers; George B. Murphy, Petaluma, manager G. P. McNear Feed Co.; Ellis Hart, Petaluma, manager Golden Eagle Milling Co.; A. J. Rathbone, Petaluma, agriculture teacher; Legro Pressley of Santa Rosa, Sebastopol agriculture teacher; H. J. Schnabel, Sebastopol, agricultural instructor; Ernest Williams, Sebastopol, poultryman; L. Stenquist, Sonoma, agricultural instructor.

LITTLE MISS BARR

IN CANTATA

Inadvertently we failed to mention little Miss Frances Barr in our Christmas notes on the cantata at the M. E. church, as the copy was written during the last moments before going to press. As the angel, in a robe of shimmering white, she was the embodiment of sweetness as well as angelic purity, as with extended arms she approached the kneeling Madonna and gave voice to her wonderful message as the chosen of God.

Mayor Minges of Boyes Springs was the Christmas guest of his daughter in Oakland, but came home for the New Year's celebration at Boyes.

Miss Gabrielle Heggie has returned to Susanville where she will resume teaching in the high school of that city. Miss Heggie enjoyed Christmas here with her folks.

COST OF SEARS POINT

ROAD TO BE $740,000

Construction of the proposed highway from Vallejo to Sears Point on the Black Point cut-off, Marin County would cost approximately $740,000. This is according to the report returned to Vallejo this week by the state highway commission which has completed the survey and estimated on building of the roadway.

The estimate includes bridges which it would be necessary to build across the Mare Island channel and Sonoma Creek as well as a possible bridge or fill at Tulcay.

According to the report of the highway commission, which came to Assemblyman R. B. McPherson, the actual highway would cost about $200,000 and would be 10.22 miles in length. The bridge at Mare Island channel would cost $540,000 and that across Sonoma Creek $360,000. The bridges would be similar in construction to that across Petaluma Creek and would be of bascule span. The roadway would be of the best possible construction.

The highway as surveyed runs from a point at the corporate limits of Bay Terrace to Sears Point, connecting with the Black Point cut-off and giving a direct highway to Sausalito and San Francisco. In view of this, the report states: "Heavy traffic is anticipated in view of the fact that a connection with San Francisco via Sausalito will be afforded, providing reduced ferry time in comparison with other routes now in operation between San Francisco, Vallejo and other points." The highway would require slightly more than a year's actual work to complete.

The bill asking investigation and survey of the proposed route was introduced in the state legislature two years ago by Assemblyman McPherson and with completion of these preliminaries, the report will be submitted at the coming legislative session in an effort to have it included in the budget for highway construction through the ensuing fiscal year.

FORMER DEERHOLM ENTERTAINERS NABBED

In a raid on the Blue Goose, a road house near Fulton, on New Year's, R. H. Henley, Miss Edna Baron Miss Gene Haven, Miss D. T. Gaites and Miss Emma Keller were arrested. Some of the women were former entertainers at Deerholm Inn, near Agua Caliente and are well known in Sonoma Valley. They are at liberty on bail totaling $3800.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB DEDICATES NEW HOME

Refreshments served by the ladies of the organization concluded a fine evening.

Hard Times Party at Froments'

The usual jolly welcome to the New Year was accorded 1923 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment, where a congenial party of friends gathered to participate in the jollity. This year the party was a hard times costume party and many comical and old garments were in evidence. There were cards, games, music and dancing. At midnight the Virginia reel was the order of the hour which ushered in the New Year. Partners greeted one and another with salutations of good luck and there was general jollity, ending in a grand march to the dining room, where a beautifully decorated Christmas tree and festive table reflected the holiday spirit. The dishes and cups carried out the hard times idea, but the lavish repast served and the good time enjoyed by all during the two hours' feast was in decided contrast. Original resolutions for the New Year were written and read by those gathered around the table, there were guessing contests and other entertainment until "three o'clock in the morning," the party singing strains of this popular song as they departed for their homes.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson and son, Mrs. Ada Pauli, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pauli, Mr. and Miss Bertin of San Francisco, James and Ray Gottenberg, Ernest Coates, Miss Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Froment, and Misses Eugenie and Marguerite Froment.

SANTA ROSA BANKER AND POSTMASTER HERE

George M. Cadan, vice president of the Central Commercial and Savings Bank of Santa Rosa and Charles O. Mr. Dunbar is a director of the Santa Rosa branch and is keenly interested in the development of the Sonoma financial field. Charles is an old Sonoma boy, his family having lived in the Glen Ellen section many years ago, where the Dunbar school house is now situated.

JACK SPINDLER IS HERO OF EXCITING BURGLAR CHASE

Mrs. Rosa Randolph's Grandson
Gave Alarm When Thief Fleeing
From Police Tried to Get in Home.

Jack Spindler, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Spindler of San Francisco and grandson of Mrs. Rosa Randolph of Sonoma, was hero of a recent burglar chase in San Francisco. The police were chasing a thief and in his mad flight he sought safety by climbing up the rear of the Spindler home property to get in a window and hide. The boy heard police whistles, sat up in bed to listen and saw the burglar's head appear above the window sill. He gave the alarm and the thief dropped down and was caught. The exciting incident occurred while Mrs. Randolph was down for the holidays and she witnessed all the excitement in the vicinity of her daughter's home. Here is what the Daily News said of the occurrence:

"A boy of four years today caused the arrest of two men, whom the police charge with numerous burglaries in San Francisco.

The boy is Jack Spindler, 4, 402 Sanchez St. The alleged burglars are Jas. Smith, 24, 252 Sixth St. and his friend Moses Aizeniendi, 23, same address. Smith, police say, has confessed. His friend was arrested because the two lived together.

The affair started at 2295 Market St. Policeman J. Carleton discovered Smith trying to break into a cigar store there. He fired shots and chased Smith for a few blocks when he lost him. In the mean time Jack was sleeping with his mother at 402 Sanchez St. He awakened, saw two hands and a head appear over the sill of the window. He punched his mother and pointed to the window. She screamed, and Jack Spindler, her brother and uncle of the child, hurried into the room with a revolver.

Smith—for it was he hanging to the window sill—climbed to the roof, Spindler leaned out, fired a few shots in his general direction and ordered him to drop. Smith dropped into the arms of Policeman Carleton, who, attracted by the shots, had arrived during the fuss.

BOYES SPRINGS GREETED '23

Boyes Springs greeted young 1923 with a fine party and gave fitting farewell to the departing 1922. The fun started early in the evening with the Boyes Springs New Improvement Club as hosts. The club house was in gala holiday trim and a cordial welcome was extended everyone by the hospitable club members. Everything was free and fine refreshments were provided by the entertainment committee.

At the approach of midnight, Master of Ceremonies W. B. Cause staged a fine demonstration and Kid '23 received a royal reception. It was a joyous, noisy greeting, the fire bell, fire engines and horns a-plenty adding to the jollity. Everyone had a fine time and were profuse in thanks for the lavish entertainment and wished the Boyes Springs Club every success during the new year.

M. F. Mullen, veteran S. P. agent, and wife received on New Year's day an annual pass over the Southern Pacific lines, with the compliments of President William Sproule.

Rumor has it that a San Francisco butcher will soon seek a location here. With the Wright law enforcement the hard and soft drink emporiums will be converted into other businesses.

Jack Main of San Francisco, owner of Main's Resort, Verano, was in town the first of the week and owing to the unsettled condition of things, will close his place here during the winter season.

Bob Dickson, deputy sheriff of Santa Rosa, passed through here Sunday morning enroute to Oakland. Bob made his start in El Verano and in the old days was proprietor of a barber shop at Rossi's cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Court have returned to San Francisco and intend selling their ranch in Sonoma Vista, as their oil stocks are paying good monthly dividends and they find this much easier than raising chickens.

Pete Andrews of Boyes Springs was a New Year's visitor to San Francisco, renewing old acquaintances and meeting his old friend, Battling Nelson, former champion lightweight of the world. The famous gladiator and our well known turfman talked over the old days, had dinner together and enjoyed several soft drinks, Pete being on the water wagon. Nelson is now a fight manager and has a string of boxers touring the country. On his return trip Pete stopped in Petaluma and Santa Rosa.

Henry Koerner was in San Francisco the latter part of the week, taking in the famous German comedians, Kolb and Dill, in their new play now running at the Curran. Henry pronounces these clever entertainers better than ever.

A cannibal dog has made his appearance in town and several thoroughbred canines have been very nearly eaten alive by the strange dog, and are now in our local dog hospital. Owners are watching for the voracious canine and will execute him with out waiting to pass sentence if they capture him.

Bone dry and with officers keenly alert, we report the quietest New Year in George Maxwell's boom town since the first weeping willow was planted, many years ago. Other parts of the valley also report things quiet and the dry spell is on. Kid '23 looks like a dry year with slim pickings for those depending on bootlegging as a source of revenue.

Charles McDevitt and family were S. P. passengers for the Summit last Saturday morning after a holiday visit at the Fred Batto home. Mac has several important positions in the snowbound country, being postmaster, mayor, deputy sheriff, and game warden, besides being hotel proprietor. Mac's time is all his own after these important offices are taken care of each day.

The natives of El Verano thought the new year was being ushered in ahead of time Saturday evening when the three horse team of Joe Tanlis ran away with a load of lumber. The noise of the galloping steeds and the rumbling wagon aroused the natives and after a spirited chase by the owner and others, the horses were stopped by Albert Rossi, who at considerable risk to himself, grabbed the leader, preventing a general smash up and injury to pedestrians.

A world famous visitor, known as Jimmie O'Connell, $100,000 ball player, was the big noise in town Sunday. Jimmie stepped over the line from Boyes Springs to get a general slick-up at our local barber shop. Our natives collected around the great twirler and gazed with awe and wonder, as our village barber mowed off the whiskers of a week's growth, raised in the wilds of Boyes Springs. Our barber will put the whiskers in a glass case to remember Jimmie when he is knocking home runs with the big leaguers. Our esteemed visitor was accompanied by Pat McDonnell, well known foreman of the Spreckels ranch

IMPORTANT MEETING FOR POULTRYMEN

Prof. R. B. Easson, extension poultry specialist, will lecture on Brooding Chicks at the Sonoma Grammar School auditorium on Wednesday, Jan. 17th, at 1:30 p. m. sharp. Every poultryman is interested in the brooding of chicks, the success of which means a loss or gain of many dollars at the end of each brooding season.

The poultry extension service of the University of California gives us these lectures free, to make use of in our poultry yards. A well known poultryman says: "Let us all make an effort to be there on time, to learn for our own benefit more about how we can make a better success of raising good laying pullets this year. If we all knew what a great help these specialists are trying to give us, at our own doors, we would all be there to take advantage of the help offered free of charge. Old timers can learn the newest ways of doing the work. The world is not standing still and the more up-to-date we are on our poultry ranches, the more successful we will be. Less work and more money will be ours at the end of the year if we follow the best up-to-date methods of brooding."

Bring your questions about brooding along and have them answered by Professor Easson.

LONG TERM FOR RYAN'S ASSAILANT

Blair and Davis, the two men who were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan at Schellville while in the attempt to loot a loaded freight car, appeared in court at Santa Rosa on Friday afternoon and plead guilty before Superior Judge Emmet Seawell. One of the men was on parole from Washington and the other had served two terms in the state penitentiary. They were each given a sentence of from 1 to 15 years at San Quentin prison and Sheriff Boyes and his deputies took one of the men to prison on Saturday. A more serious charge is hanging over Davis.

Harry Burmester of Berkeley was up during the college vacation visiting his folks at El Verano.

Mrs. Al Dutil had a visit from her mother and other Stockton relatives during the holidays.

VIOLATORS GET UNEXPECTED JOLT

Frank Riese and Joe Elwood, who were found guilty in the police court of Judge F. F. Plank of the charge of violating the prohibition ordinance being caught with a jug of wine in their auto, which they had given to several young people, appeared before Judge Plank last Saturday for sentence and were given a term of 90 days in the county jail each, and $250 fine each.

They were taken to Santa Rosa a short time after being sentenced and have begun to serve their term. Police Chief Flohr and Police Officer Bert Johnson took them to the county jail by auto. It is stated that they will be unable to pay the fine at present but the court hopes to collect it later.—Petaluma Argus.

BILLY AKERS HAS ACCIDENT

Little Billy Akers, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Akers, met with an accident Christmas night when he fell from a coaster which he had received for Christmas. He incurred a deep gash in his left arm which required six stitches to close. He was removed to the Petaluma General Hospital, where Dr. S. Z. Peoples attended him.—Petaluma Courier.

Z. LEMAY AT SANITARIUM

Z. Lemay, retired railroad employee and pensioner of the N. W. P., for whom he worked many years as a blacksmith was stricken with paralysis New Year's day and had to be taken to Crane's Sanitarium.

Mr. Lemay is a French Canadian and not long ago enjoyed a fine trip east and to Canada, where he visited relatives.

HAS NICE POSITION WITH FEDERAL RESERVE

Miss Marguerite Helberg, who was home for the holidays, at Schellville, has a nice position with the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco as stenographer. This is the bank to which Henry Weber, Jr., has gone.

STEINS ARE RECOVERING

Fomer councilman, Aubrey Barham, has been playing nurse to members of his family who have been ill for some days past, and is happy now that they are convalescing. Mrs. Barham and the daughter of the household, Mrs. Al Stein, and the latter's son, Master Richard, have all been bedfast at one time with the gripe and flu, and to wait on them and see that their needs were attended to was no small job for Mr. Barham.—Santa Rosa Republican.

More Than Two Billion Dollars Worth of Products Manufactured in California Annually

California has already become famous throughout the nation for her climate, her tourists, her scenery, her fruit and her gold.

Yet little has been known of California's industrial wealth, for which she is also destined to become famous.

The aggregate value of the products manufactured in California is more than two billion dollars per year.

And with her expanding harbor facilities, her ample power resources, her proximity to new sources of raw material, and her ideal climate for work and play, California's industrial growth has just begun.

78% of California Oil Refined Here

Petroleum from California wells last year represented a value of $182,400,000. More than 78% of this petroleum was refined in California, the finished products having a value of more than a quarter billion dollars.

Another great industry is the canning and preserving of fruits and vegetables. The aggregate value of the finished products runs over the two hundred million dollar mark. Steel shipbuilding almost equals the canning industry in total value of finished products. Meat packing is over the hundred million dollar mark. Flour milling reaches $75,000,000.

Wide Range of Industries

Lumber and timber products, printing and publishing, the production of beet sugar, tanning, currying and finishing of leather, production of tinware, manufacture of confections—all represent industries which return their millions of dollars to California every year.

Few people realize that in addition California manufactures iron and steel, food preparations of various kinds, women's clothing, men's clothing, bags and paper products, furniture, steam, gas and water engines, condensed milk, paints, electrical machinery, soap, cement, tobacco products, and chemicals. Each of these lines of industry represents a total output of more than ten million dollars per year.

And there are dozens of other lines which contribute their millions to the State's total production. A few of these are chocolate and cocoa, automobile bodies and parts, agricultural implements, photographic supplies, explosives, rubber tires, tubes and rubber products, roofing materials, fertilizers, shoes, jewelry, fur goods, etc.

California is a great industrial State as well as a leader in agricultural wealth and natural resources.

Help Us Tell the Nation These Amazing Facts About Our State

This advertisement is one of a series of three, the first devoted to telling of California's agricultural wealth, the second to California's natural resources, and the third to California's industries. These are facts of which you can well be proud.

Beautiful booklets and descriptive literature about California have been prepared by such organizations as Californians, Inc., San Francisco, by the All-Year Club of Southern California, Los Angeles, and by the San Diego-California Club, San Diego.

There are thousands of people in other States who have no conception of California's greatness. Some of them are your friends. Help us tell them.

If you will send to the Southern Pacific Company a list of the names and addresses of your friends, living elsewhere, whom you would like to have receive this series of advertisements as well as the California literature prepared by these organizations, which have for their sole purpose the advertising of California, we will see that your friends get this California literature.

Send Your List Today

Your friends will be glad to know these facts. The list of names you send us will be turned over to your own Chamber of Commerce or other civic organization, and literature will be sent telling them interesting facts about your own particular community.

Simply attach your list to the coupon below and send it to us—no obligation on your part. Do it today before you forget. In this way you will help to spread this message of California's greatness throughout the land and perform a valuable service not only to your State but to yourself and to your community.

QUIETING TITLE TO THE PLAZA

We believe that the request of the Sonoma Business Men's Association that the City of Sonoma quiet title to the Plaza is reasonable and to be commended. The city will now ascertain its rights in the matter of procedure and find out whether or not it can, through legal procedure, acquire complete control over the eight acres of ground, jurisdiction of which has from time to time been the subject of dispute.

The matter of rights came to a climax when the city sought to lease a portion of the Plaza for an oil service station, the understanding being that revenue derived therefrom should go to beautify the Plaza itself. Heirs of the donor of the acreage raised the point that the Plaza was a gift to the city with the understanding that it could be utilized for public park purposes only and would revert to the heirs of the donor, General Vallejo, if there was any infringement of this understanding. The controversy widened into an open rupture which led to statewide discussion and ill feeling. As a result, the proposed lease was withdrawn in expectation of litigation from those claiming rights superior to the municipality. In order to avoid further controversy and to settle for all time the question of what can or cannot be done with the Plaza, the City of Sonoma will carry the matter up to its City Attorney, an authority on municipal law.

The proposal of a civic auditorium to be erected on the Plaza in case the city can be vested with complete control and authority over the property is sufficient good reason for the matter of jurisdiction to be threshed out right now. We need an auditorium to attract conventions and its building seems possible to the Association provided Plaza rights can be determined.

ARE YOU CO-OPERATING?

Everyone in the State cannot be organized to do promotion work for the upbuilding of California, but the Southern Pacific Company has hit upon a plan to bring this very work of service to our State to everybody's door. The work is simple and outlined in the series of advertisements appearing in this and other newspapers, the advertisements setting forth California's great advantages. You are asked to fill out the coupon attached to the ads with the names of friends in the East who may be interested in knowing more about our Golden State and any particular part of it. The railroad company will do the rest. They will send valuable literature to the Easterners and will also have Chambers of Commerce and similar organizations send illustrated matter relative to the particular section in which your friends would be most interested.

Already thousands of names are being sent in and soon the entire East will be flooded with literature descriptive of all of California. It is a big, fine, splendid movement and we should all co-operate and make it bear fruit. The marvelous harvest which Southern California has reaped from similar campaigns proves what can be done through promotion advertising and community interest in it.

GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE CONFERENCE

Sonoma Valley should be intensely interested in the coming conference on the Golden Gate bridge matter. This project means more to Sonoma County and adjacent ones than any that could possibly be imagined. Linking up this section to San Francisco's populous shores would mean a complete evolution of every activity about us, a new life, economic and social. The bay has cut us off from metropolitan participation and it has been a struggle of half a century for the growth we have obtained. With the building of the bridge over the Golden Gate, five years would see Sonoma County a new and rich empire.

Let everyone who can, attend the conference at Santa Rosa on January 13th and participate in this greatest stride of the century. If the project gains impetus and comes to be an actual accomplishment we will have participated in one of the greatest eras of California.

The following letter from the Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce outlines the proposed meeting and its importance:

"With engineers and financiers agreeing that the projected Golden Gate bridge is entirely feasible, it appears that the next important step is a conference of representatives of all interested communities and interests likely to be immediately affected by the utility. As one of the principally interested centers north of San Francisco bay, Santa Rosa, through the Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce, cordially invites everyone in your community to a conference in Santa Rosa on Saturday, January 13, 1923. The meeting will be in the assembly hall of the Chamber of Commerce building, on Hinton Avenue, opposite the Court House, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Development of a definite program of action, looking toward the immediate inauguration of steps for the building of this great utility, as projected, or as altered to include direct railroad connections with San Francisco from all northern points, can be begun at this conference. You are therefore urged, in the interests of a greater development in the North of Bay Counties, to plan now to attend. The broad importance of such a bridge is admitted by all."

SONOMA ORCHESTRA

AMERICAN LEGION
DANCE A BIG SUCCESS

The American Legion gave a very successful dance Saturday night last, the New Year's spirit being much in evidence. At midnight a confetti and serpentine battle turned the dance into a real carnival and dancing continued until a late hour.

The music was furnished by an orchestra led by Prof. Ransford of Napa and was par excellence.

Mr. and Mrs. Matteri of the Tomasi ranch have a new baby girl.

RASMUSSENS AND CRIVELLIS ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. P. Rasmussen of Schellville entertained on New Year's eve at a fine supper, Mr. and Mrs. A. Crivelli and family, E. Forni and D. Bonewitz. All present had a fine time and enjoyed the last moments of 1922 with a few shots, David Crivelli taking first place at the shooting and proving an excellent shot.

In return on New Year's day the Crivellis entertained the Rasmussens and other friends. A fine turkey dinner was enjoyed, all declaring Mrs. Crivelli a splendid cook.

After dinner Messrs. Crivelli and Rasmussen furnished accordion music for dancing.

This Bank Welcomes Small Deposits

THE Central Commercial and Savings Bank, Sonoma's progressive banking institution, has had this ideal from the start: Service to depositors of small amounts.

When we have ten fifty-dollar accounts, we have ten times as many friends and boosters as when we have but one five hundred-dollar account. The more boosters we have, the faster the bank will grow.

So you're welcome at the Central Commercial and Savings Bank, even though a single dollar is the total amount of your first deposit.

The same principle applies to every phase of our varied service. No matter how small the transaction, each department gives the same prompt service. Borrowers desiring small amounts are given every consideration.

Do business with Sonoma's strong bank—the bank that welcomes everyone!

MORE CEMENT SIDE WALKS FOR SONOMA

The city trustees at their first meeting of the new year last Wednesday night followed up their policy of better streets and side walks by ordering curbs, gutters and side walks completed by property owners on Napa street to the westerly city limits. The cement sidewalk put in recently by the Duhrings along their frontage on Napa street has added greatly to the appearance of the city and the trustees now are to continue with the program beyond the grammar school to the VanDamme corner.

A delegation of the Sonoma Business Men's Association waited on the Board and asked that the city quiet title to the Plaza in order that jurisdiction of it should be for all time determined.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid.

RALPH CARACCIO GETS NEW HEARING

Released on $1000 bonds following the filing of writ of habeas corpus proceedings, Ralph Caraccio, sentenced to 90 days in jail and fined $500 in the police court of Petaluma on a charge of liquor law violation, will be brought before Superior Judge Emmet Seawell Friday, January 5, for a hearing. Caraccio's appeal from a Petaluma police court sentence was denied recently in the superior court and the defendant was re-sentenced yesterday by Police Judge Plank of Petaluma.

In order to bring the writ of habeas corpus, it was necessary that Caraccio be imprisoned. He was brought to the county jail by Sheriff Boyes late yesterday, until his attorney, G. P. Hall, had obtained the writ ordering the sheriff to have Caraccio appear in court next Friday, when the allegation that Caraccio is held illegally will be heard.—Republican

SPRECKELS NEW RACE TRACK AT TANFORAN

Bids were opened Wednesday for the construction of the new clubhouse the last unit of the new Spreckels racing plant at Tanforan. Officials of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club are to hold a conference with contractors and others connected with the construction work about the plant, according to Manager J. D. Stelling.

Orders for the necessary steel to complete the building have been placed, and it is expected that the grandstand, the contract for which was let a little over two weeks ago, will be rushed. Before the end of January the actual construction is expected to be well along.

A meeting of the stockholders and board of directors has been called for next Tuesday, at which time the matter of policy to be pursued by the Pacific Coast Jockey Club will be discussed. An opening date for the new track is expected to be named at that time. Some steps will be taken to determine the duration of the meeting by the board of directors.

R. F. Leighton, racing secretary of the club, returned yesterday from Vancouver, and reported that there is great interest being taken in racing circles throughout the country over the new Tanforan plant. Many prominent horsemen are anxious to bring entries to the Spreckels track and are anxiously awaiting the official announcement of the opening date, according to Leighton.

The stables have been erected already at the Tanforan track, and horses are working out daily on the track, which has now been completed and in working order for over a month. Horses from the Marchbank stable and several belonging to Frank Kelley are among those at present at the track.

Herschel Hyde, U. C. student, has been spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hyde of Vineburg.

W. S. Bonbright of Glen Ellen has returned from a visit to his brother in Los Angeles.

SANE VIEW EXPRESSED IN CONGRESS

The following speech was made in the House of Representatives at Washington, D. C., by Hon. Walter Magee of New York on Dec. 7th, last. It goes to show that reason and sanity still prevail as to prohibition in some brains. Congressman Magee is to be commended for voicing the following clear-cut, reasonable deductions and suggestions:

The pending bill carries an appropriation of $9,000,000 for the enforcement of prohibition, $250,000 less than the appropriation for this fiscal year. My brief remarks will raise only one point—the rights of the people under the Eighteenth Amendment. Existing conditions are so intolerable, disrespectful, defiant and violation of law so prevalent and insistent, so threatening to our institutions, so endangering to the perpetuity of the Republic, that I feel it my duty to express my views. I have always stood for temperance and against intemperance. I hold no brief for "drys" or "wets." I hold a brief only for my country.

I am sworn to uphold and enforce the Constitution and the laws of the United States, and while I remain a member of the House, regardless of my personal views, I will faithfully live up to my oath of office. During my years of service in the House, I have voted at every opportunity to give to the people their full constitutional rights, and while I remain a member of the House I shall continue to do so. Those favoring the Eighteenth Amendment contended that it was necessary to amend the federal constitution to bring about and to enforce prohibition in this country. When the amendment was adopted the Congress proceeded to attempt to enforce prohibition through legislative action, disregarding of the letter and the spirit of the amendment. The fiat of the Congress was substituted for the authority of the Constitution.

The enforcement act is practically bone dry. The Eighteenth Amendment is not. The amendment, among other things, prohibits the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within the United States for beverage purposes. It is apparent that the people are entitled to a beverage containing any alcoholic content that is reasonably non-intoxicating. The law should be based upon reason, and reason should also prevail in permitting the use of alcohol for scientific and business purposes and in permitting the use of liquors under prescription from physicians. I think that the judiciary committee of the House, and I refer to that great committee only because under the rules of the House it has jurisdiction in the premises, should reasonably determine upon competent and expert evidence the maximum alcoholic content permitted under the amendment and make available the evidence sustaining its findings in order that the members of the house not on the judiciary committee may be able to determine for themselves the reasonableness thereof. This finding of fact is solely the duty of Congress.

I have examined the opinions of the Supreme Court upon matters arising from prohibition legislation and I find nothing therein contrary to this view. It is not to be presumed that this great tribunal would disturb such a finding of fact honestly, conscientiously and reasonably found by Congress and based upon competent and sufficient evidence to sustain the same. Of course, the power of the Congress in this respect is not unlimited. Finding of fact not based upon sufficient evidence might well be said to raise a question of law. In two hundred and fifty-first United States, 22, the court said: "We can not say, as a matter of law, that a beverage containing not more than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol is intoxicating."

In determining the maximum 'we must bear in mind that there exists for our consideration not a war time power involving the defense and preservation of the nation, but a constitutional power involving the rights of the people in times of peace. Then, I think, Congress should provide that each state may determine in its own way by legislative action or by referendum, what alcoholic content not exceeding such maximum a beverage manufactured and sold within the state may contain. If Minnesota wants cold water, let her have it. If New York wants the maximum, no other sovereign state could reasonably object. This would not only be reasonable but just and equitable, inasmuch as the eighteenth amendment gives to the several states concurrent power to enforce prohibition. We can render no better service than to do all that lies within our power to command respect for and obedience to the federal government, the bulwark of our institutions.

The phrase, light wines and beer, while seductive, is meaningless under the constitution. The question is one purely of alcoholic content. The Congress has no power and should not attempt to nullify the constitution. The manufacture and sale of beer and light wines, or either, must be incidental to the maximum alcoholic content permissible under the Eighteenth Amendment.

Two objections are frequently made against liberalizing the enforcement act. One objection is that it will mean the restoration of the saloon. The answer is the elimination of the saloon through Federal enactment. The other is that it will mean an entering wedge for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. This objection lacks force. As 13 states can block repeal, it can reasonably be presumed that the Eighteenth Amendment is in the constitution to stay. However, any excuse for denying to the people their constitutional rights is untenable and indefensible.

The granting of such rights would probably result in a beverage, at a reasonable price, manufactured from pure ingredients under governmental inspection, and sold only in the places and in the manner prescribed by the government; in greatly reduced appropriations for the enforcement of prohibition; in increased treasury receipts of more than a half billion dollars a year, not exacted from overburdened taxpayers but cheerfully paid by citizens in the exercise of their constitutional rights; in the elimination of the production and consumption of poisonous and deadly concoctions; and, above and beyond all, in the restoration of a wholesome respect for law and the constitution and in public co-operation in the upholding and enforcement thereof.

Let us have the courage, the courage that knows no fear, the courage that obliterates self, the courage of the men who have made this nation great, to grant unto the people the rights guaranteed to them under their constitution.

NEW POULTRY LEAGUE TO BE ORGANIZED

Another meeting of the directors of the proposed new poultry association was held in Petaluma on Thursday evening of last week at the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of formulating tentative plans for the organization. Those present were John Denman, Prof. J. E. Dougherty of the University of California, D. B. Walls, Allen Hart, Ernest Williams, Sebastopol; E. O. Hussey, George Murphy, Dr. Corl, R. A. Temperly and H. W. Kerrigan. John Denman presided.

After going over some preliminary matters, it was decided that the following plan of organization should be adopted:

Know all men by these presents that we, the undersigned, all of whom are citizens and residents of the State of California, have this day voluntarily associated ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the State of California and do hereby certify:

First—That the name of said corporation shall be California Poultry League.

Second—That the purposes for which the said corporation are formed are to promote and develop the poultry industry of California, and, as far as possible, of the whole country by:

1—Educating the consumer to appreciate and demand quality in poultry products and thus cause a greater spread in prices between good and poor quality products.

2—Determining in detail the causes of variation in egg quality and teaching the producer and the distributor how to utilize this knowledge.

3—Acquainting the public with the cost of producing eggs at different seasons; with the value of and cost of processing, storing and other methods of preserving eggs and poultry; with the cost of distributing eggs, the necessity for such distribution and improvements that would effect savings and thus reduce the price to the consumer.

Keeping producer and consumer informed on all legislation bearing on the poultry industry, promoting beneficial legislation, protecting the industry against harmful legislation promoting the enforcement of laws that will benefit the industry.

5—Aiding all other educational agencies in promoting the welfare of the poultry industry.

6—Educate the public to a better appreciation of the food and money value of eggs from the standpoint of mineral and vitamin content, relative nutritive value per unit of cost, etc., as compared with milk, steak, and other food products.

7—To extend mutual acquaintance and co-operation among producers, and others actively interested in the poultry industry to the end that producers, manufacturers dealers and the consumers may have a higher appreciation of poultry products as human food.

8—To do and perform any and all other acts which may be either necessary for, or proper or incidental to the exercise of any of the foregoing purposes.

It was decided that there should be a committee appointed to meet at a later date to form a constitution and by-laws. The following were appointed: G. B. Murphy, H. A. House, Allan Hart. This committee will report back to another meeting of the general committee.

L. Bertin and daughter of San Francisco were guests over New Year's at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment. Mr. Bertin is of the well known firm, Bertin & Lepori.

HOME VINTAGE BARRED BY NEW DRY LAW

Heads of families in California may no longer make their annual 200 gallon supply of wine, according to John P. McLaughlin, collector of internal revenue. He lays it to the Wright Act.

The new law enforces in this state the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act. The permission granted by the prohibition commissioner to heads of families to manufacture 200 gallons of wine annually is not included in this legislation. The Wright Act does not include any privileges not granted under the Volstead law, hence a strict interpretation of the Wright Act means that the manufacture of any liquor in the home is unlawful, McLaughlin says.

Mrs. Percy Carmer (Aletha Franquelin) and little one are guests at the Franquelin home, having come up for the holidays.
